

The ecosystem of AraneoBit is:

the universal p2p "web" of social and financial communication, based on the technology of clustered blockchain

What we create:

- Flexible settings provide an opportunity for any physical or legal person to quickly create their own social decentralized platform, reflecting their needs for digitizing their activities, increasing customer loyalty and instant monetization;
- Clustering gives an opportunity to choose to create a transparent and open social infrastructure or to implement its own blockade completely closed from outside observers;
- The ideology of the social network provides unique opportunities for new economic phenomena (for example - bloggers) to become completely independent and to realize their own ecosystems with individual settings that correspond to all trends of the modern safe digital economy anywhere in the world;
- Automation of business processes, conducting calculations with customers and suppliers, automating communication with government services (taxes, pension contributions, insurance, etc.);

How does AraneoBit make money:

- sale of unique services of the company;
- commission from transfers between clusters;
- transactions in the application of money transfers AraneoBit and online stores;
- Sale of licenses for the use of the company's blocking business for commercial purposes.

Projects already implemented on the AraneoBit platform:

- The system of mutual settlements, remittances and accounting of obligations based on P2P (Transboundary money transfers without (or with a minimum) commission without intermediaries, P2P lending with an intelligent system of debt repayment, etc.);
- The system of lottery games. "Transparent" lottery, built on the principles of open smart contracts;
- Crowd-investing site with an intelligent and completely transparent start-up scoring. Analysts and advisers have a rating that affects the voting and admission of the project to investment.
